REMAINS IDENTIFIED.

Body Found in the Ohio River That of Hannah Goddard Knapp.

RELATIVES ARRIVE AT NEW ALBANY.

Corpse Embalmed and Shipped to Hamilton, Ohio—Sister of Alfred Knapp Threatened. The Prisoner Talks.

New Albany, Ind., March 3.—Edward F. King of Cincinnati and Charles Coddard of Hamilton, Ohio, brother-in-law and brother of Hannah Goddard Knapp, have positively identified the body found floating in the Ohio river as that of Hannah Goddard Knapp, wife of Alfred Knapp, now under arrest in Hamilton. The statement was made that the jewelry found on the person was the same as that known to have been worn by the young woman before she became the wife of Knapp, and that there is not the slightest doubt of her identity. Careful work of the embalmers did much to restore the appearance of the body. The remains will be sent to Hamilton. Chief of Police Kuemmerling of Hamilton accompanied the two men to New Albany and will be in charge of the body.

The matter of identification was extremely difficult. The body is green from long exposure to the water, there is not a hair on the head and the body is nude save for a stocking on each leg. It is believed the body is that of Hannah Goddard Knapp, and that it was put in a rough box and thrown into the Miami river at Hamilton, O., Dec. 22, floated on out of the Miami and into the Ohio and down past Louisville, where it rose to the surface and was discovered.

The identification of the body was almost made certain by a minute description telegraphed by the authorities of Hamilton. In the ears were gold wire earrings, and on the third finger of the left hand was an embossed ring with three little birds and an owl. On her legs were black stockings, and on the right leg, just above the ankle, was a dark bruise. In every particular the body of the floater was found to tally with the minute description of his wife given by Knapp in his confession.

KNAPP TALKS.

Says His Sister and Her Husband Betrayed Him.

Hamilton, O., March 3.—Alfred Knapp, when asked how he escaped in so many cases up until he choked Hannah, said: "That's what I'd like to know. They would not now know if it was not for my people telling that they suspected me. I married Hannah 26 days after I killed Jennie. Did that catch me? No, it was not my getting married. That would not have made any difference. My sister told. Mary was my favorite sister, too. They ought to have shielded me, instead of coming here to assist the Hamilton police. If your brother was in trouble, wouldn't you shield him, instead of giving him away? I wouldn't treat any brother or sister of mine that way."

"It ain't the police that got me. It's my sister Mary and her husband, Ed King. Why, the detectives in Cincinnati suspected me after Jennie was found, and I fixed one of them so he quit following me, and I raised a racket with Chief Detsch about it, too. Witte, with another detective, was following me two weeks, when one day, on Central avenue, near Laurel street, they were right behind me. I had a heavy cane, and I let them get right up on me. Then I turned quickly and hit Witte right over the ear. He went down, and he stayed there. The other detective came after me, but I ran home. Then I put a revolver in my pocket and went right up to see Chief Detsch, and I told him that I would kill Witte if he didn't quit following me, and that I knew all the detectives and I would kill any of them he set after me. They didn't follow me any more. I would have killed Witte that day if I had had a revolver."

While talking about the finding of the body of Hannah Goddard, Knapp confessed another criminal assault. Knapp says he is the man who, in the summer of 1886, assaulted a girl at New Madrid Bend, on the Mississippi river, in Lake County, Missouri. He says he was chased by a mob bent on lynching him, and that he held a big crowd at bay with a Winchester rifle.

Knapp is appearing to feel pleased over the recovery of the body of Hannah Goddard, saying that he is glad it will have a decent burial. He also repeats that he was desirous of heading the searching party. He requested the sheriff to get a photographer for him, as he wants to get a lot of photographs to set to the public.

Knapp's Sister Threatened. Cincinnati, March 3.—Mrs. Edward

F. King, sister of Alfred A. Knapp, has reported that her life has been repeatedly threatened by another woman interested in the Knapp defense, and she asked for protection, which was accorded her. Mrs. King said: "If I meet the woman I guess it will be all up with me. She hates me because my husband and I were the first to start the investigation of what Allie did in connection with the disappearance of Hannah Goddard. I am terribly afraid that she will carry out her threat to kill me. She knows that I opposed Allie's marriage. If she were to come here with a pistol and confront me and my baby, I would have no way of protecting myself."

PANAMA COMPANY

Accepts the Proposal Made Recently by the United States.

Washington, March 3.—Attorney General Knox, on leaving the cabinet meeting, announced that he had received from the Panama Canal company an acceptance of the proposal which he recently made to it with respect to the extension of the option on the canal company's property held by this government. He said that the communication from the canal company was of such a nature that the option would be kept alive until after the ratification of the pending treaty—it mattered not whether the treaty was ratified before or after the conclusion of the present session of congress.

STRIKE FRUSTRATED.

Injunction Issued Restraining Wabash Railway Employees.

St. Louis, March 3.—Judge Adams, in the United States district court, has just issued an injunction, on the petition of Wabash officials, restraining the chairmen of the labor committees and all others from interfering with the traffic of the Wabash system.

Bankers Injured

Toledo, March 3.—David Robinson and James Robison, respectively president and cashier of the Ohio Savings Bank and Trust company; Willard Robison, president of the David Robison, Jr., & Sons' bank; Horace Suydam, secretary of the Milburn Wagon works, and W. F. Webb, coachman for the Robisons, were badly injured in a street car and carriage collision while returning from a theater. The car, going at a high rate of speed, struck the equipage squarely on the side, smashing part of it to splinters and precipitating the occupants to the pavement.

Insurgents Still Active.

Manilla, March 3.—Ladrones captured the town of Ous, in the province of Albay. They at first disarmed the municipal police and then surprised the constabulary garrison. A few of the constabulary obtained rifles and resisted stoutly, but they were finally overcome. A few of the constabulary were killed and 15 were captured. At the request of General Alon, General Davis will furnish two companies of scouts to assist the constabulary in suppressing the disorder in Albay province. Colonel Scott has been sent to Albay to command the joint forces.

Princess Louise's Farewell.

Geneva, March 3.—The departure of Princess Louise for Lindau was so well managed that nothing was known of her voyage until daughter and mother met at Lindau. Before quitting La Materich the princess presented many souvenirs to her attendants and also gave a handsome present to Dr. Martin. She wrote a touching letter of adieu to M. Glron, saying it was better that they should part and break off all relations, concluding: "It is for the sake of my children."

Carnegie to Princeton.

New York, March 3.—Andrew Carnegie has given Princeton university $1,000,000 for the construction of a graduate school. The gift is made as a payment of a debt of gratitude Mr. Carnegie felt that he owed his physician, Dr. Joseph J. Garmany, who attended him during his recent illness in Europe. Dr. Garmany declined to accept a personal gift, but suggested that something be offered Princeton, from which Dr. Garmany was graduated in 1879.

Pattern Makers Strike.

Cincinnati, March 3.—The Pattern Makers' union has ordered a strike here. The entire membership of the organization, about 100, have declined to go to work except upon an increase of 10 per cent in the wage scale, which now runs from $19.50 to $23. Every shop in the city devoted exclusively to the making of patterns is without hands, while in the shops attached to foundries only a few pattern makers were at their benches.

Collector at Detroit.

Washington, March 3.—It was announced that David McGinnity will be appointed internal revenue collector for the district of Detroit, to succeed Charles Wright. Mr. McGinnity was indorsed by Senator Alger.

LAST LEGISLATIVE DAY.

House Makes Strenuous Efforts to Clean Up Business.

MAJORITY OVERCOME THE MINORITY.

Senate Wrestling With Important Measures, But Much Will Remain For the Extra Session. Congressional News.

Washington, March 3.—The senate entered upon the last legislative day of the Fifty-seventh congress, as there will be no adjournment till 12 o'clock Wednesday, when the congress expires by limitation. A resolution was adopted continuing until the next regular session the standing and select committees. The conference reports on the sundry civil bill were agreed to.

Mr. Hoar called up the conference report on the bill to protect the president. Mr. Bacon (Ga.) declared that the alleged conference report is a bill which, with the exception of one single sentence, had never been read in the senate. The bill, he said, is far-reaching in its character and absolutely subversive of the fundamental principles upon which the government is founded. Replying, Mr. Hoar insisted that the conference report was the senate bill in its entirety, with the exception of the matter pertaining to anarchists.

On a yea and nay vote the senate refused to take up the pure food bill—24 to 32. The Aldrich bill was then taken up, and Mr. Aldrich took the floor. He had, he said, been greatly surprised at the attitude of certain Democratic senators. The national banking system, he declared, is beyond the power of the senator from Arkansas and the senator from Kentucky to destroy. It is not had by their grace or the party they represent.

In the House.

Washington, March 3.—When the house reconvened there was a large attendance on the floor and galleries were well filled. As soon as Chairman Henderson called the house to order Mr. Richardson, the minority leader, attempted to make the point of no quorum, but the speaker recognized Mr. Payne to demand in yeas and nays on the pending question—the adoption of the conference report on the immigration bill. Mr. Richardson insisted that his point was good, but the speaker overruled him, and when the Democratic leader appealed from the decision he declined to entertain the appeal on the ground that it was dilatory. The report was adopted—197 to 17.

Mr. Cannon presented the conference report on the sundry civil bill. He pleaded with the minority to dispense with the reading of the report in extenso, but Mr. Richardson was obdurate and refused consent.

Serious Disagreement.

Washington, March 3.—There is a serious difference over the naval appropriation bill, and the prospects are that a disagreement will be reported. The point in dispute is the increase of the navy, the house standing for its program of large ships and the senate as firmly insisting upon its provisions for smaller ships.

Rivers Falling.

Pittsburg, March 3.—The rivers are falling rapidly, and business along the wharf has assumed its normal condition. The swiftness with which the water is going down caused the men employed on river and whariboats tied up along the banks an anxious period. Nobody would go to sleep, as the falling water made it necessary for all to go to work. John Craft, assistant engineer of the towboat Iron Age, while at work on the boat fell overboard and was drowned. The Monongahela Coal company is preparing to send out coal. The southern shipment will reach several million bushels.

Gas Inspectors Strike.

Chicago, March 3.—The strike of inspectors in the employ of the People's Gaslight and Coke company, which was indorsed by the Federation of Labor, was actively inaugurated, 19 inspectors sent out by the company having left their work at the request of the members of the Gas Inspectors' union who had been discharged. The company executed a shrewd move by ordering the inspector not to report at the office, but to go directly to work from their homes.

Sheep and Cattle Burned.

Salem, O., March 3.—Fire destroyed the large barn and outbuilding near New Albany, three miles northeast of Salem, which were owned by John Pow of this city. One hundred and thirty head of fine-bred sheep and three cattle, grain and farming implements were consumed. The estimated loss is $4,000.

FIVE KILLED

By the Explosion at the Edison Cement Works, It Is Claimed.

Easton, Pa., March 3.—So far as can be ascertained at this time, five men were killed by the explosion at the Edison cement works at New Village, N. J. The dead are: James Myers, New Village; Daniel Smith, New Village; Nathan Hopkins, Washington, N. J.; Edward Phillips, Phillipsburg, N. J., and Mr. Kinney. Nothing but shreds of flesh and bits of clothing have been found of Kinney. The officials at the works refuse to give out any news of the disaster. They declare they do not know how many were injured, and they will not admit that any men were killed. The list given above, however, is believed to be correct.

Philippine Imports and Exports.

Washington, March 3.—The bureau of insular affairs of the war department has received the complete official figures of Philippine committee on commerce for November, 1902, the importations for which month, exclusive of gold and silver and government supplies, were valued at, approximately, $3,000,000, or slightly in excess of the average trade during eleven months of the calendar year during 1902. More than half of this amount is credited to the purchase of food articles, and is due, in a great measure, to crop failures. The exports show a trade of nearly $3,500,000, being the largest monthly export showing since American occupation, with the exception of that for September last. Hemp shipments approximated three-fourths of this amount, nearly $2,000,000 worth being sent to the United States.

Mayor Ames Talks.

Hancock, N. H., March 3.—Former Mayor Albert A. Ames of Minneapolis, who is here awaiting the result of extradition proceedings, said, in the course of an interview: "I am perfectly willing to go back and face the charges, but I really do not feel able. I know that I am not strong enough to stand the journey, and the physicians advise against it. I am perfectly innocent. I know they cannot prove any of these charges, which are due to politics, and you know what that means." "It is persecution," interrupted Mrs. Ames, indignantly. "They simply want to injure the doctor. They want to get him away."

Woman Recovers Her Jewels.

Boston, March 3.—Out of pity for a woman who had attempted to kill herself through grief over the loss of jewels and money, persons whose names are not made known gave the police information which led to the arrest of Jacob Brenner on the charge of larceny of the articles. In court he was held for the grand jury. Mrs. Jacobovitch owned the jewels. She went shopping on Feb. 16 and carried her diamonds, valued at $2,800, and $700 in money in a bag which she had tied above her knee. During the afternoon she lost the bag. Brenner says he found the jewels and money in the street.

Ordered to Leave Town.

Colorado Springs, Colo., March 3.—A meeting of the striking members of Colorado City Mill and Smelters' Union No. 125, at which many business men were present, was held at Colorado City to investigate charges against the recording secretary of the union, A. H. Crane, to the effect that he had divulged the plans of the union to the mill owners. Crane was brought to the meeting under police protection, and at the conclusion of the investigation he was ordered to leave the city, which he is supposed to have done.

President Francis Departs.

Paris, March 3.—President Francis of the St. Louis exposition started for Madrid after devoting the morning to a further exchange of visits. He also went to the chamber of commerce and to the bourse. Mr. Francis held an informal levee, several hundred leaders of the financial world crowding around him while M. Lagrave, the commissioner of France to the exposition, presented the leading officials of the various chambers. All those present had something good to say of the exposition.

From the Philippines.

San Francisco, March 3.—The United States transport Sheridan has arrived from the Philippines. She left Manila on Feb. 6 and Nagasaki on Feb. 13. She brought 97 cabin passengers and 1,222 in the steerage, including 404 marines, 213 discharged men and 42 sick, 7 insane and 456 casuals. Only one death occurred during the voyage. The Sheridan took the place for this trip of the Sherman, which recently struck a rock and was forced to put into Hongkong for repairs.

Washington, March 3.—Secretary Hay and Sir Michael Herbert exchanged ratifications of the Alaskan boundary treaty. The preparation of the cases of the two sides will proceed with all speed, as under the treaty they must be submitted to the arbitrators within 60 days.

CORONATION OF LEO.

Twenty-Fifth Anniversary Made a Magnificent Event at Rome.

MYRIADS THROG ST. PETER'S CHURCH

Venerable Pontiff Appears, Receives an Ovation and Administers the Benediction—His Feebleness a Source of Anxiety Abroad.

Rome, March 3.—From sunrise all Rome was on the alert and showing most unusual animation and interest in the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the coronation of Pope Leo XIII.

The scene of the piazza of St. Peter's was magnificent. There were assembled many hundreds of Italian troops in various modern uniforms, making a striking contrast to the medieval costumes of the Swiss papal guard on duty at the bronze doors of the cathedral. The crowds which gathered before the first cordon of troops were impatient as they stood dripping under the persistent rain. There was a great clashing of umbrellas and a general feeling of discomfort among the waiting sightseers, who included very many women in most varied attire, comprising foreigners of all nationalities, the uniformity of the crowd being pleasantly broken by groups of sisters in the different gowns of their orders, Catholic students and picturesquely attired friars.

When finally the doors of St. Peter's were opened an almost indescribable struggle occurred, in which all present forgot the rules of holiness and strove hard, with push of elbows and feet, to reach the interior of the sacred edifice.

At 11 o'clock precisely the great bell of St. Peter's rang out a signal, which was followed by the clanging of the bells of about 500 churches in Rome, as they sounded the announcement that the pontiff was on his way to the basilica. The life of the ancient city seemed to pause for a moment, hats were raised and the sign of the cross was made. Shortly afterward, inside St. Peter's, silver trumpets blared out their message, and the pontiff appeared. The people held their breath for a moment, and then all the pent-up enthusiasm burst forth in a tremendous roar of welcome.

Meanwhile the pope proceeded slowly on what seemed a carpet of heads, absorbing the entire attention of the vast throng. When the pope arrived at the throne the ceremony proceeded rapidly. Leaving the sedia gestatoria, the pontiff knelt and prayed, and then rose without assistance, donned the falda and the new triple crown, and the celebration of the mass began.

The pope administered the papal benediction and retired to a room for restoratives, prepared on purpose every time he goes to St. Peter's. There, addressing Dr. Lapini, his private physician, the pontiff said: "You see that after all your warnings the ceremony did me good. What touching loyalty!"

It was calculated that there were about 75,000 people present. There were about 1,000 Americans in the tribunes and the body of the church.

English Catholics Uneasy.

London, March 3.—Much uneasiness is caused among English Roman Catholics by the reports from Rome of the increasing feebleness of the pope. The Vatican keeps its secrets more closely than any foreign office in Europe, and Cardinal Rampolla is not likely to create alarm by premature disclosures. The influential Roman Catholics here are remembering the pope's advanced age and are not reassured by the press dispatches giving an account of the consistory or by statements of his physical condition. Cardinal Vaughan is expected to exert as much influence as Cardinal Manning did in his time in determining the succession, and he is reported to be convinced that the relations between the Vatican and the Quindinal require an Italian pope, and that no foreign cardinal can adequately represent the claims of the papacy to temporal sovereignty.

Indiana Miners.

Terro Haute, March 3.—The bituminous miners of Indiana district No. 11 met here in annual convention. About 100 delegates are present, representing 9,000 men. One of the principal subjects that will come before the convention will be the proposed consolidation of the district with district No. 8, composed of block coal miners.

Gas Famine.

Huntington, W. Va., March 3.—Huntington, Central City, Kenova and Ceredo, W. Va., and Ashland and Catlettsburg, Ky., are experiencing a gas famine, resulting from a break in the chief main leading from the fields in Kentucky. Many factories have been closed and there is much suffering.

The Republicans of Cincinnati are waking up to the fact that they have a fight on their hands this spring to retain their hold on the city government. The better class of people of the Queen City have long ago tired of Boss Cox and his corrupt gang, but it remains to be seen whether they are strong enough to oust them from office.

BISHOP HAMILTON, of the Methodist Church, in an address at San Francisco avowed his belief that there was nothing wrong in the intermarriage of whites with negroes and Chinese. When asked, however, if he would consent to his own daughter marrying a negro he replied emphatically "No." The Bishop should not preach what he is not willing to practice.

ONE Cincinnati man is ready to take the entire output of the Portsmouth pressed brick plant this season. Paving brick plants everywhere have a bright outlook. The late Captain Cooper was authority for the statement that there is not a finer clay for this kind of brick to be found anywhere than that along the C. and O.'s tracks through Charleston Bottom, and he stated that these clay beds are practically inexhaustible. Capitalists could not find a better location or a better business for the investment of their money. In the same locality a superior quality of building brick can be made. The neighborhood is splendidly adapted we believe for such an industry and it is strange that men with money have not taken hold of the matter long ago.

J. A. RENAHAN, formerly one of the C. and O. Fuel Company of this city, and who went to Chicago three years ago as Vice President and General Manager of the Smokeless Fuel Company, has removed his headquarters to New York City, and is at the Grand.

"We wanted to get nearer tidewater," said he, "where we could get better facilities for the coast trade. The price of coal is now about down to normal in New York City—$5.50 for anthracite. There is abundance of coal on the Eastern seaboard now. The English have put into that market 500,000 tons this winter, and, while it is inferior to our coal, it helped out. When I left New York, day before yesterday, there was 135,000 tons in Boston Harbor awaiting to be discharged, to say nothing of what has been berthed. There are now 250,000 tons along the Atlantic from New York to Maine. The English can afford to land coal in our Eastern ports at $4 to $4.50 a ton.—Enquirer.

So it seems the removal of the tariff from coal did really have something to do with the drop in the price of fuel in New York.

A TWO BILLION CONGRESS.

Representative Livingston, of Georgia, the ranking Democrat of the House Appropriations Committee, makes the statement through the Courier-Journal that the appropriations for the Fifty-seventh Congress, which closes to-day, would show a minimum aggregate of two billions of dollars. The last session appropriated directly and authorized expenditures amounting to $1,059,567,052. This amount included $180,000,000 for the construction of the isthmian canal.

"It all goes to show the reckless extravagance of the Republican party," says Mr. Livingston. "As long as there is a big surplus in the Treasury the Republicans seem to think it is their duty to spend as much of it as possible. Before they get through with it there will be little remaining to expend. It is my firm belief that the people of the country will think over this financial situation and register their protest at the elections next year. It is all well enough to talk about a two-billion dollar country, but if the Republican party had run through appropriations amounting to ten billion dollars they would fall back upon the same argument and call us a ten-billion-dollar country.

"A big surplus of idle money in the Treasury and the temptation to spend it is really the cause of the enormous appropriations. Primarily the remedy lies in a reduction of this surplus and the Democratic doctrine of a tariff for revenue only affords the remedy. I look to see the extravagance of the Republican party play an important part in the next campaign. Some of these appropriations—probably the greater part of them—are absolutely unjustifiable, and I believe the people are not going to be fooled by the two-billion dollar country cry that the Republicans are going to raise."

Shirtwaists for Spring

Broad Choosing Among 150 Sorts.

Many of the fabrics in this singularly generous exhibit of New Shirtwaistings are intended for intermediate wear, that is they are half way between light and heavy. But the tendency seems to be more toward heavier materials this season—you won't see so many lawns and muslins, except for midsummer wear, as you will linen canvas, vestings, madras, chevot and the like—shirtwaists that will preserve a fresh appearance longer than the flimsier sorts. All of which is borne out in this collection. Beside the fabrics mentioned there are damasks, cotton voiles, piques and other attractive materials, many with an alluring touch of newness in the weave. Prices range from 10c. to 50c. One item for details—

20c. Printed Madras For 15c.

No matter what the price the patterns could not be prettier or the printing better. Over thirty patterns to choose from, mostly in favored designs on white grounds. The showing includes dainty figured stripes, medallion figured stripes, classical figures and colored stripes, all on white grounds. White figured stripes and floral designs on black grounds. 15c. a yard instead of 20c.

Tapestry Pillow Cases.

Sofa cushion covers of cotton tapestry, eminently Oriental in design and variety of rich colors, are very low-priced at 25c. each.

In fact you'd readily give 35c. for one.

The rapid advance of spring suggests freshening the cozy corner. Easy to do at such a trifling outlay.

The United States Fish Commission, a few years ago, was breeding carp and distributing the spawn all over the country and now the one effort everywhere being made is to exterminate the carp. A few months ago a lake in New Jersey was drawn off in order to get rid of the carp summarily. Now the Park Commission is likely to accept an offer to get the carp out of the Schuylkill. The carp was introduced as a cheap food, but cheap food is not what the American people are after.

In a single year Northern Presbyterians lost by death 53,523; the net increase was 69,461 members, although those added to the church numbered 225,583.

Additional County News.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—The marriage of Mr. Mike Stahl and Miss Mollie Sweeney was solemnized at St. Patrick's Church, Maysville, Feb. 24th, at 7:30 o'clock, Rev. P. M. Jones officiating. The bride is an estimable young lady, and was tastefully attired in brown cloth, with hat and gloves to match. The groom is one of Washington's prosperous and industrious young men. The attendants were Miss Susie Stahl and Mr. John Stahl, brother and sister of the groom. They left on the 1:30 train for Georgetown and will go to Dayton, O., their future home.

SURE SEEDS.

There are two kinds of seed houses. One raises no seed, but buys seed wherever they can get it the cheapest, taking the growers word as to kind and variety.

The other kind like Landreth's own great farms in different parts of the country, in charge of experienced seed growers and with every facility for growing seeds. They plant seeds of known variety, hence can be sure of the product.

If you want seed that you can be sure of—sure of variety—sure of growing—buy them here. These fresh reliable seeds cost no more than the other kind. Can you afford to take chances? Call and get a catalogue.

A Velvet Party!

Did you ever go to a velvet party? No? Well, come to ours, FRIDAY AT TEN O'CLOCK. All kinds of plain velvets—every color under the sun except probably the color you want, except you be on hand at the start. The peculiar part of a velvet party is that your neighbor selects the color she thinks you want—that's what you think when you come too late. The cheapest was 50c., the best $1.50 per yard; lengths from one-half yard to five yards. Choice, 15c. per yard. Do you think you will come to the party?

MERZ BROS

Danville Advocate: "Dr. J. M. Frazee, of Mason County, was in the city Saturday in the interest of his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Commissioner of Agriculture. Dr. Frazee is well-known in this section, having formerly resided in Garrard County, where he married a daughter of Judge Lusk. He is an ex-member of the Legislature, and was a candidate for the office to which he now aspires before the Goebel convention, where he was defeated by a narrow margin."

WRECK AT RUSSELL.

Westbound Accommodation Train Crashed Into Caboose of a Freight—Two Killed and Others Injured.

C. and O. train No. 3, the accommodation due in Maysville at 9:15 a. m., crashed into the caboose of an extra freight train at 6:30 Tuesday morning just east of Russell.

Brakeman Charles Miller and Conductor Henry Davis, of the freight, were killed, and Joe Rose, an Ashland boy, riding to Russell on the caboose, suffered a fracture of both legs and was probably fatally injured internally.

Engineer Burwell, of the passenger, was bruised and scratched in jumping, and a number of passengers received slight cuts and bruises.

The operator at Ashland had failed to hold the passenger, it is claimed. The passenger train should have been held there until the freight was reported at Russell.

The passenger, going forty miles an hour, crashed into the caboose in which were Davis, Miller and the Rose boy. The caboose was reduced to splinters and the passenger engine was stopped by a car loaded with brick. Brakeman Miller's body was terribly mangled. One leg was found along side the track, and the head and trunk were found two hours after the wreck, far back in the extension head of the passenger engine's boiler, where it had been literally roasted.

Conductor Davis lived about two hours. He was not on his regular run, but went out in place of Conductor Cobb, who was feeling ill. Both Miller and Davis leaves wives and families.

A heavy fog prevailed at the time of the wreck, and the crew of the passenger engine had barely time to jump as the freight loomed up through the mist.

The passenger train was delayed about three hours, passing Maysville shortly after 12 o'clock.

"Foxy Grandpa" To-night. Managers Russell, Dye & Frank have a good big production to offer their patrons to-night in "Foxy Grandpa." The company is a large one, numbering thirty people, and carries a car-load of scenery. The part of Gordieby Gordman, who believes that boys will be boys and proves himself to be "Foxy Grandpa," is taken by Ed. Groh, and the parts of "Chub" and "Bunt" by Edward Koestler and Irving Newhoff, while the rest of the large cast is in efficient hands. If you want to laugh, hear good singing, see good dancing and enjoy a good show, be sure and see "Foxy Grandpa" to-night. Buy your tickets now at Nelson's.

A Venerable Sage...

Whose advice was much sought, being noted for his sound judgment and business prudence, once counseled a young merchant in this fashion:

"If you want to be noticed you must get
"In front of folks and worry 'em some."

We've been trying very hard to make this bit of philosophy fit our own case, and, through these advertisements, believe we have succeeded in attracting a generous measure of patronage to our house. We don't want to "worry" you too much with a recital of these facts, but expect you to notice that we stand in "front" of all competition in our line in Northeastern Kentucky. Trade invited in these seasonables:

American Woven Wire Field Fence,
Ball, Limestone and Oliver Chilled Plows and Points,
Hoes, Rakes, Forks, Spades, Mattocks, Cutting Boxes, Wheelbarrows,
Step-Ladders, Ready-mixed Paint, Etc.

CAN'T BE SEPARATED.

Some Maysville People Have Learned How to Get Rid of Both.

Backache and kidney ache are twin brothers. You can't separate them. And you can't get rid of the backache until you cure the kidney ache. If the kidneys are well and strong the rest of the system is pretty sure to be in vigorous health. Doan's Kidney Pills make strong healthy kidneys. Mrs. E. J. Thompson, of 911 East Second street says: "Mr. Thompson procured Doan's Kidney Pills at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store, corner of West Second and Market streets, and speaks in high praise of their curative powers. Entire exemption from suffering from backache is something so entirely unusual that a remedy which acts so promptly and effectively as did Doan's Kidney Pills is a most desirable one of which to know."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
